Tuesday, August 22, 2016

First day candidates for municipal elections can begin to raise money. §17-5-7(b)(2). Under general law, there is no limitation on the amount an individual or corporation may contribute to the campaign of a person running for municipal office.

NOTE: Once a candidate establishes a principle campaign committee pursuant to the Fair Campaign Practices Act, the committee must file monthly campaign disclosure reports pursuant to §17-5-8. Please refer to the attached "Candidate Filing Guidelines" from the Alabama Secretary of State for report filing requirements.

FCPA Forms for municipal candidates must be filed with the probate judge in the county in which the office is sought. See §17-5-9(a). Where the municipality is located in more than one county, the statements and reports shall be filed in the county where the city hall of the municipality is located. The probate judge of the county where the report is filed, which is Jefferson County for City of Birmingham municipal candidates, shall provide a copy of the report to the probate judge of the other county or counties where the municipality is located (Shelby County). See §17-5-9(c).

Please check with the Probate Office as it relates to all campaign filing deadlines and guidelines or visit the Alabama Secretary of State's website at www.alabamavotes.gov (under the tab Candidates).
