

BIRMINGHAM

CIVIL RIGHTS

INSTITUTE

THE BLACK FAMILY:

REPRESENTATION, IDENTITY
& DIVERSITY

520 Sixteenth Street North | Birmingham, AL 35203
1.866.328.9696 | www.bcri.org

Celebrate Black History Month with us!

Visit our galleries for a safe & socially distant historical experience or enjoy virtual programming from the safety of your home.

2021 BLACK HISTORY MONTH SCHEDULE OF EVENTS

FEB 3
@ 12PM

BCRI VIRTUAL TOUR

our Legacy Youth Leadership Program will present a safe museum experience that you can see from the comfort of your home

THE TALK: SURVIVING WHILE BLACK IN AMERICA

an encore broadcast of the conversation that every Black parent has to have with their Black children

FEB 4
@ 12PM

FEB 9
@ 2PM

HERITAGE ALIVE

No Mirrors in Nana's House - a perfect read-along children's book by Ysaye M. Barnwell about a family matriarch

DANGEROUSLY HUNGRY: HOW FOOD DESERTS DISPARAGE BLACK FAMILIES

a virtual dialog surrounding how food deserts effect Black communities

FEB 11
@ 12PM

FEB 12
@ 6PM

FILM DISCUSSION: ETHNIC NOTIONS

a virtual discussion about Marlon Riggs' award winning documentary and how we can evolve out of stereotypes and reverse anti-blackness.

Visit our website to learn how you can see Ethnic Notions, a documentary film, for FREE!

@BHAMCIVILRIGHTS

2021 BLACK HISTORY MONTH SCHEDULE OF EVENTS

Visit our website for more
Black History Month resources!

FEB 17
@ 12PM

BCRI VIRTUAL TOUR

our Legacy Youth Leadership Program will present a safe museum experience that you can see from the comfort of your home

REDLINING: NO GATE NEEDED

an interactive town hall about our nation's history of housing discrimination

FEB 18
@ 6PM

HISTORICALLY SPEAKING: WHO AM I?

genealogy basics and best practices with John Lanier and the Birmingham African American Genealogy Group

FEB 22
@ 11AM

REDEFINING THE IMAGE: FICTIONAL BLACK FAMILIES

a presentation and conversation surrounding the representation of Black families in film and television

FEB 25
@ 12PM

Visit our galleries
Thursday - Saturday,
10AM - 2PM.
Tickets are timed in order to limit
attendance and promote physical social distancing.

FACE MASKS REQUIRED

