

BIRMINGHAM

BLACK HISTORY MONTH

EVENTS

LOOKING FOR UNIQUE GIFTS THAT HIGHLIGHT AFRICAN AMERICANS?

YOU'LL FIND THEM AT THE BIRMINGHAM MUSEUM OF ART GIFT SHOP.

THE SHOP IS HAVING A BIG SALE, NOW THROUGH FEB. 26, 2021. THE GIFT SHOP NUMBER IS 205-254-2777.

CURRENTLY, THEY HAVE:

- Artist Jacob Lawrence "American Struggle" catalogues and books by and about Jacob Lawrence.
- Board books for children, two illustrated books for children, and "American Struggle: Teens Respond" book, which is also good for adults.
- A number of Jacob Lawrence prints, both framed and unframed.
- Multiple books by and about African-American artists and books that examine African-American history and the fight for civil rights in the South and beyond.
- The new book, "Young, Gifted and Black: A New Generation of Artists." Birmingham Museum of Art Director Graham C. Boettcher and Curator Hallie Ringle are two of the contributors to this book.
- Calendars and jigsaw puzzles that feature prominent African-American artists.
- Notecards, jewelry and more created by local African-American artists.
- A collection of merchandise including T-shirts, totes, buttons and stickers that feature Willie Cole's Black Art Matters campaign to assist Wells Brings Hope.

